

heading

Lion (seventh story)

() ('sevənθ) ('sto:ri)

1

When I was a little boy I heard
(wen)(ai)(woz)(ə)('litəl)(boi)(ai)(hə:d)

2

many stories of lions. I heard ('meni)('sto:ri:z)(ov)(). (ai)(hə:d)

3

that the lion was a terrifying sight
(ðæt)() ('laiən)(woz)(ə)('terifaɪɪŋ)(saɪt)

4

for one person not used to that (fo:)(wʌn)('pə:sn)(not)(ju:zd)(tu)(ðæt)

5

sight. But it is no wonder when I (saɪt)(bʌt)(ɪt)(ɪz)(nəu)('wʌndər)(wen)(ai)

6

recall the trips my family and I (ri'ko:l)(ðə)(trɪps)(maɪ)('fæmɪli)(ənd)(aɪ)

7

made in the savage north region (meɪd)(ɪn)(())('sævɪdʒ)(no:θ)('ri:dʒən)

8

of Mozambique. The prospect (ɒv)(məʊzəm'bi:k)(())('prospekt)

9

we got from the Opel car my (wi:)(got)(frɒm)(())(kɑ:)(maɪ)

10

father was driving was so fierce,
('fɑ:ðə)(wɒz)('draɪvɪŋ)(wɒz)(səʊ)(fiəs)

11

so savage, so empty, so lonely,
(səʊ)('sævɪdʒ)(səʊ)('empti)(səʊ)('ləʊnli)

12

that the few animals that lived (ðæt)()(fju:)(ʼæniməlz)()(livd)

13

there had the identical (ðeər)(hæd)(ði)(aiʼdentikl)

14 appearance and fierceness of (əʼpiərəns)()(ʼfiəsnis/z)(ov)

15

the sight. So, we must no
(sait)()(wi:)(mʌst)(nəu)

16

wonder of the terrifying sight of a (ʼwʌndər)(ov)()(ʼterifaɪɪŋ)(sait)(ov)(ə)

17

savage lion. Not a sight of a lion (ʼsævidʒ)()(not)(ə)(sait)(ov)(ə)(ʼlaɪən)

18

of a game reserve. The lions we (o^v)(ə)(g^{eim})(ri'zə:v)(l)(^{'la}iən^z)(wi:)

19

usually watch on television
(^{'ju:ʒ}uəli)(wot^f)(on)(^{'tel}iviʒən)

20

haven't this terrifying
(^{'hæ}vnt)(ðis)(^{'ter}ifaɪɪŋ)

21 appearance. Nothing compared (ə^{'p}iə^{rəns})(^{'n}ʌθɪŋ)(kəm^{'p}eəd)

«eə» - o «e» é muito aberto

22

to this!!
(tu)(ðis)

23

I had always heard that when a (l)(hæd)(^{'o:l}wei^z)(hə:d)(ðæt)(weⁿ)(ə)

24

lion nears a man there wouldn't

(n*ie*z)(ə)(mæn)(ð*ee*)(ˈwudnt)

«ee» - o «e» é muito aberto

25

be any salvation because the

(bi:)(ˈeni)(sælˈv*ei*ʃən)(biˈkoz)()

26

man couldn't look at the lion. If (mæn)(ˈkudnt)(lu*k*)(æt)()()(if)

27 the man looked at the lion he

()(mæn)(lu*kt*)(æt)()('laiən)(hi:)

28

was immediately frozen on the (woz)(iˈmi:di*et*li)(ˈfrəuz/ə/n)(on)()

29

spot with terror. The man

(spot)(wið)(ˈterə)()(mæn)

30 couldn't run away, couldn't (ˈkʊdnt)(rʌn)(əˈweɪ)(ˈkʊdnt)

31

move, couldn't think! He was (mu:v)(ˈkʊdnt)(θɪŋk)(hi)(wɒz)

32

dead!
(ded)

33

However, the salvation was only (haʊˈevə)(sælˈveɪʃən)(wɒz)(ˈəʊnli)

34 possible when the man (ˈpɒsɪbəl)(wen)(hə)

35

surmising the presence of a lion (səˈmaɪzɪŋ)(ˈprezəns)(ɒv)(ə)(ˈlaɪən)

36 immediately got mounting the (i' mi:diætli)(got)('mauntiŋ)()

37

nearest tree never looking back.
('niərist)(tri:)('nevə)('lukiŋ)(bæk)

38

Never. And I was told that the ()(ənd)(ai)(woz)(təuld)(ðæt)()

39 lion never climbs trees. But the ()()(klaimz)(tri:z)(bʌt)()

40

lion had a set of get the native
('laiən)(hæd)(ə)(set)(ov)(get)()('neitiv)

41

that was up on the tree. The lion (ðæt)(woz)(ʌp)(on)()(tri:)()

42 roared with all his power and the (ro:d)(wið)(o:l)(hiz)(ˈpauər)(ənd)()

«auə» - tritongo, a segunda vogal abrevia-se

43

native fell of the tree. It was said

(ˈneitiv)(fel)(ov)()()(it)(woz)(sed)

44

the same for the baboons. The ()(seim)(fo:)(bəˈbu:nz)()

45 baboons fall immediately of the (bəˈbu:nz)(fo:l)(iˈmi:diətli)(ov)()

46 tree when the lion roar under

(tri:)(())(ro:)(ˈʌndə)

47

them and catch the baboons

(ðem)(kætʃ)()(bəˈbu:nz)

48 completely paralysed. I wonder (kəmˈpli:tli)(ˈpærələaɪzɪd)(ˈwʌndə)

49

how the chief met the lions (haʊ)(tʃi:f)(met)(ˈlaɪənz)

50

alone!!
(əˈləʊn)