Lion (eighth story)

1

When I was a little boy I heard

(wen)(aɪ)(wɒz)(ə)(ˈlɪtəl)(bɔɪ)(aɪ)(hə:d)

2

many stories of lions. This story

(ˈmeni)(ˈsto:ri)(ov)(ˈlaɪən)(ðɪs)(ˈsto:ri)

was told to me by the chief with (wɒz)(təʊld)(mi:)(baɪ)(tʃi:f)(wɪð)

4

the deepest awe. On Sundays

(ðə)(ˈdi:pɪst)(o:)(on)(ˈsʌndɪz)

5

when my brother and I had our

(wen)(maɪ)(ˈbrʌðə)(and)(hæd)(auə)

6

school duties accomplished we (sku:l)(ˈdju:ti^z)(əˈkompli^t)(wi:)

7

circled the chief and would (ˈsə:kəld)(^o)(tʃi:f)(ənd)(wud)

8

usually ask the same question to (ˈju:ʒuəli)(ɑ:sk)(^o)(seɪm)(ˈkwestʃən)(tu)

9

the chief. Which is the strongest (^o)(tʃi:f)(witʃ)(iz)(^o)(ˈstrɒŋ^{ist})

10

animal: the lion or the elephant?
(ˈæniməl)(^o)(^o)(^o)(^o)(ˈelifənt)

11

The chief never, never would (^o)(^o)(ˈnevə)(ˈnevə^r)(wud)

12

tell us which was the strongest (tel)(ʌs)(witʃ)(wɒs)(ʔ)(ˈstrɒŋɪst)

13

animal. But one Sunday he told (ˈæniməl)(bʌt)(wʌn)(ˈsʌndi)(hi:)(təʊld)

14

us the following true story. The people of Africa many times (ˈpi:p/ə/)(ov)(ˈæfrikə)(ˈmeni)(ˈtaɪmz)

16

used to circle the huts with a 17

palisade and the cattle would (pæliˈseɪd)(ʔ)(ʔ)(ˈkætəl)(wud)

18

sleep inside the palisade. What happened, it happened many times. One night a lion jumped afterwards was the lion catching in the jaws. We can understand (in)(ðə)(dʒo:z)(wi:)(kən)(ʌndə´stænd)

30

the awe of the chief. This deed of the lions was usual in the 33

when it is told the terror, the
